

Introduction

WHY?

▶ Prevent the spread of misinformation.

► In May 2020, researchers at Carnegie Mellon reported that nearly half of all accounts tweeting about Coronavirus are likely bots.

► Users attrition may occur if bots are not monitored and removed if necessary.

Introduction

WHY?

- ▶ Prevent the spread of misinformation.
- ▶ In May 2020, researchers at Carnegie Mellon reported that nearly half of all accounts tweeting about Coronavirus are likely bots.
- ▶ Users attrition may occur if bots are not monitored and removed if necessary.

Introduction

WHY?

Copy on the home page of Parler, a new social media platform that promises 'Real people, not bots.'